Vikings Victorious In Quadrangular Track Meet By 25 Point Margin

Local Speedsters Take Nine First Places

The Grayling Vikings were hosts to Kalkaska, Lake City and Johannesburg in a quadrangular track meet at the City Park on Tuesday, April 24, and broke their new track in right by swamping their opposition, scoring 75 points to Lake City's 51 1/2, Kalkaska's 21 1/2 and Johannesburg's 20.

The Vikings were as hot as the weather was cold as they romped to nine first places out of a possible 13. Sophomore Duane Worden led the team with four first places, setting the pace in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, pole vault and running on the winning relay team, scoring a total of 16 1/4 points. He was closely followed by Delbert Joslyn, another sophomore who scored 12 points, placing first in the high jump.

Wilfred Laurent and Terry Hilton ruled the hurdle events by placing first and second in the two events with Terry taking the high and Wilfred the low hurdles. Each scored 10 1/4 points. Elery Horning ran a thrilling half mile race edging out Kwapis of Johannesburg by inches to round out Grayling's first place spots. The Viking relay team won both events. The 880 yard team was made up of Duane Worden, Wilfred Laurent, Duane Sloan and Delbert Joslyn, and the medley relay team consisted of Sloan, Joslyn, Terry Hilton and Jim Burich.

Ted Davenport and John Goss looked good by placing second in the mile and 440 yard dash respectively while Ronnie Larson, Allen Luckstead and Derek McEvers also broke into the scoring. Winners and times for the 11 track and field events were as follows: High hurdles, Hilton, Grayling, 18.3 seconds; 100 yard dash, Worden, Grayling, 11.7 seconds; Mile run, Evans, Lake City, 5 minutes 26 and 7/10 seconds; 440 dash, Bartholomew, Lake City, 61.6 seconds; low hurdles, Laurent, Grayling, 24.5 seconds; 220 dash, Worden, Grayling, 25.6 seconds; 880 yard run, Horning, Grayling, 2 minutes 25.7 seconds; pole vault, Worden, Grayling, 7 feet 2 inches; Broad jump, Wilson, Lake City, 15 feet 3 and three eighths inches; high jump, Joslyn, Grayling, 4 feet 7 1/2 inches; Medley relay, Grayling, 3 minutes 2.7 seconds; 880 yard relay, Grayling 1 minute 47.15 seconds.

By winning the 880 relay, the final event of the day, Grayling edged Roscommon for top place in a triangular meet held at the latter's oval Monday afternoon. Mio, the third participant, pulled up far in the rear. The winners' total was 57 1/4 to the runner-up's 56 1/4. Melvin Marvin of Roscommon was first in the pole vault, high hurdles, and the low sticks took high scoring for the meet. Cason Named Sports Head

At the meeting of April 19th of the Sportsmen's Club a new corp of officers was elected for the ensuing year. The nominating committee should be commended for prevailing upon the following members to accept the reigns of our club: President, Grover Cason; vice-president, Nels Olson; secretary, Del Wheeler; treasurer, Bob Tiffin; board of directors, Otto Peterson, Carroll Wertz and Forrest Vincent. Each of us are aware that a new broom will sweep clean, but supposing that you were to give that broom all sorts of care and attention, don't you think it would keep doing its job better and longer? Rest assured that with a little co-operation this group of fellows will serve you well. Your attendance at every meeting will also give them an added incentive to do their best.

April 27th has been proclaimed as Arbor Day. Some facts and figures from the forestry division should help us off to the proper start. Do you know that there were seven million young trees available for private reforestation this year? That's right and all will be delivered before the 27th. Also the department is planting three and one-half million trees plus three hundred thousand seedlings (for wildlife food). According to the latest figures there have been over one thousand acres of wooded land burned already this year. The department urges you to participate in this Arbor Day if not by planting to at least promising that you will be more careful this year in preventing forest fires than ever before.

A bouquet of sweet scented flowers of his own choice to Fred Bear for bringing his projector and sound equipment to the last meeting so we could enjoy the movie, "Fishing for Fun."

May 16th will be the next meeting of the club and your present membership expires at the end of this month so the secretary will be on hand to renew your card. See you then.

G. H. S. Of '35 Sponsors Alumni Group

The graduation class of '35 is sponsoring a G. H. S. Alumni Association. With the willing assistance of Supt. Frank Bond, members met and began plans for organization.

Our plan for this year is to send invitations to those who are in this community, to give us a start on a larger association as the years go on.

We found 243 members who are still here in Grayling. It was most interesting to go back through the files to the Class of '89 and find many old-timers who are still among us.

Plans are under way for a banquet and an evening of entertainment. So, all you graduates, let's turn out and show G. H. S. how much we appreciate her.

We'll have more complete information for you after May 1st.

Class of '35, Clara Sorenson.

Begin Intensive Campaign To Stop Forest Fires

Do not be surprised to find a Conservation Department tag attached to your windshield or the cottage doorknob.

To pound home the slogan "Only a Green Michigan" in 1951, state forest fire fighting are going to use about every means to get public help in preventing fires.

"The job this year is going to be a lot more difficult," warns M. Bergman, State Forest Fire Chief. "Last year's intensive campaign produced the best forest fire record in Michigan history. Only 5,390 acres were ravished by fire, about a 50 per cent improvement over the previous best year, 1941.

"Our best punch in battling forest fires is a well equipped, fast-moving fire crew, and an alert and co-operating public. The fires that never get started are the important ones which keep the annual loss down."

Bergman says the person, who flips a cigarette out the car window is the biggest menace. The brush and debris burner who kindles a blaze he cannot control is not far behind on the dishonor list. According to Bergman, the careless smokers and brush burners were responsible for 600 of the 873 fires which state firemen put out last year.

Conservation officers will talk to school children and Department forest fire films will be screened at meetings of sportsmen's clubs and other organizations. Release of the Department's new forest fire movie—with some of the best unstaged fire scenes ever filmed—is planned this spring.

The importance of fast suppression of the fires which actually do get started is not being neglected in 1951 plans Bergman points out. More FM radio sets have been received and are rapidly being installed in fire lookout towers. Remaining installations have been started in southern Michigan districts first, to keep ahead of the northward-spreading hazard season.

Repairs and replacement of fire-fighting equipment have been made and newer types of equipment are being designed and tested at the Roscommon Forest Fire Experiment Station.

An aid in the event of serious conflagrations, Bergman says, is the refresher training course held last year. In two-day camps with over 100 men each, simulated fire (Continued on Page Nine)

Breaking Cases Involve Juveniles

It was announced today by Probate Judge Ray F. Clement that investigation by police authorities had revealed that several Grayling juveniles were implicated in the breaking into of two Grayling business places, 5 residences and many cars.

He warned people who are leaving their cars unattended to look them if they contain anything of value. The investigation is continuing in the case, Judge Clement is urging parents to keep a better supervision of their children.

"These unfortunate cases would not occur if parents supervised their children much better," Judge Clement declared. "If parents of Grayling children will not take the time to do this or can not, the Probate Court has no alternative except to take that supervision into itself through probation."

In failing, the only thing then to be done is to send the children to an institution," he added.

Destruction in the homes entered was beyond belief, he said that police authorities told him. Furniture smashed and other furnishings destroyed. Small amounts of money and small articles were missing in the two breaking and entering cases of Grayling business houses.

Judge Clement urged every Grayling businessman to sign an official complaint when and if their property is stolen or destroyed by juveniles. This makes way for official action by the Probate Court.

Council Discusses Three Problems In Special Session On Monday

Water, Airport, Industry Talked Over

The Grayling City Council held a special session Monday evening and discussed the Grayling McNamara Airport with a Grayling Aero Club Committee, the possibility of inducing a small manufacturing plant here with a Grayling Chamber of Commerce Committee and ended their session with a discussion with City Manager Max Davenport on the proposed water pump house and added water softener.

The pump house and water softener project is still in the proposal stage but should be most ironed out by the May Council meeting which is also the new year's budget meeting.

The City water contains 12 grains of hardness per gallon. Of this the calcium is by far the worst, being 2/30 grains per gallon. The iron, which is perhaps

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stillwagon of Lovells celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary last Saturday evening. Over 200 friends and relatives were present at the Lovells Community Chapel to witness the beautiful and impressive ceremony when they renewed the marriage vows. Rev. Herbert T. Sebree, pastor and Rev. A. H. Hazzard of Alpena officiated. The chapel was decorated with daffodils, snapdragons and iris for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwagon had as their attendants Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Husted of West Branch. Mr. Husted is Mrs. Stillwagon's brother and also was an attendant when they were married in West Branch 50 years ago.

Before the bridal party entered Rev. Sebree sang "The End of a Perfect Day." Miss Jeanine Stillwagon, dressed alike in light blue taffeta dresses, came down the aisle together. They wore wrist corsages of yellow daisies.

Mr. and Mrs. Husted followed the flower girls after which the bride and groom of fifty years of wedded life marched to the altar together. Rev. and Mrs. Sebree most beautifully sang, "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

The Golden Wedding ceremony was read by Rev. Sebree and vows renewed by Mr. and Mrs. Stillwagon in a single ring ceremony. They knelt before the altar while Rev. and Mrs. Sebree sang the impressive, "Savior Take My Hand and Lead Me All the Way." A prayer was given by Rev. Hazzard and benediction pronounced. So again Mr. and Mrs. Stillwagon start out on another 50 years of wedded life. They then proceeded to the club rooms while being showered with rice. Flash pictures were also taken.

The reception—which was prepared by members of the family—was enjoyed by over 200 friends and relatives. The reception table was a picture with gold candles in candelabra and a beautiful wedding cake in the center.

The Stillwagons have lived in Lovells for over 46 years and have a countless number of friends which was well proven by the number who thronged to extend their congratulations. Many were unable to get into the chapel or club room. The honored couple received a bountiful number of gifts as tokens of love and respect and at a late hour all departed wishing them health, happiness and God's speed for many years to come.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ace Leng, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corsaut of Frederic, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Feldhauser and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Parsons of Maple Forest; Mr. and Mrs. W. City Attorney Charles E. Moore was named by Mayor Roberts to represent the City on the Chamber of Commerce's industrial development committee. This group is chairmanned by Charles D. Piper and has as members William Joseph and John H. Peterson. The Council intimated that it could possibly assist the committee with some financing of means to obtain a factory or manufacturing plant. Proposed sites for factories were discussed and the possibility of obtaining options on them talked over.

Don't Play Stalin's Game—Destruction

The Administration recently slashed its proposed tax increases for the next fiscal year by a substantial amount. This followed a growing disinclination on the part of the people, and therefore of Congress, to arbitrarily raise taxes in every direction, regardless of the effect on our living standards and our productive energies.

Any new tax bill must be drafted with the utmost care—and it must not be passed until the whole complex structure of government finance has been examined. There must be the strongest possible emphasis on government economy as a first step. The American people will pay whatever taxes are necessary for defense and essential domestic activities. But they cannot be expected to pay more and more at a time when politics-as-usual dominates high-level Washington thinking.

Furthermore, the thoughtless drive to increase certain special kinds of taxes out of all reason must be curbed. The capital gains tax is an example of this. It is now 25 per cent, and the Administration has asked that it be raised by 50 per cent, to 37½ per cent. It is true that relatively few taxpayers are confronted with the problem of capital gains and losses for tax purposes. Yet this tax affects us all indirectly. If it is placed at too high a level, the inevitable result is to discourage capital from entering industry—and then progress slows, and our strength as a nation is sapped. The small enterprises, rather than the big, well-financed corporations, takes the worst beating when that happens. On top of that, past history shows that an excessive capital gains tax actually reduces government revenues from this source.

One of the wisest things ever said is, "The power to tax is the power to destroy." It was never more true than it is today.

It started the day the 1951 ROADMASTER made its first appearance—and has been building up ever since.

Folks looked at the fresh new styling—the power—the features—the fabrics—the cloud-soft cushions—and the prices—and said, "Here's the smart buy in the fine-car field."

Why don't you come and see for yourself what a sensational buy this proud beauty really is?

It's a honey to handle—a joy to ride in—and just about the handsomest thing on wheels.

It has room, and poise, and a level-going gait that comes from coil springs front and rear.

There's a triumphant thrill in the willing obedience of its Fireball power and the luxurious ease of its Dynaflo Drive, which doesn't cost you a penny extra.

There's a sweeping view fore and aft through broad and uncluttered glass areas, and the new clarity of an instrument panel with high visibility at night.

Even the brakes are new, self-cooling, with a grip that takes hold like steel fingers in a velvet glove.

Here indeed is a car that is fine in bearing, in action, and in the precision of every structural part—a ROADMASTER custom built by Buick. When will you try one as our guest?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

and state legislature. Williams and the legislature find themselves diametrically opposed on taxation policies. Since the legislature does not accept the governor as its leader, months of valuable time have been spent trying to find a solution to vexing problems. "How did we get this way?" you ask. Well, because a majority of citizens wanted it to be so. Primary elections for public office circumvent party responsibility.

Law enforcement officials, including sheriffs, prosecuting attorneys and the State Police, have submitted recommendations to the legislature for tightening of criminal law procedure. Grand juries (24-man or 3-man) would be given power to grant immunity to key witnesses—a weapon removed by the 1949 legislature.

There ought to be a moral somewhere in this item: Detroit's municipal bus-street car system went $47,500 into the red during March; the union of bus and street car operators now threaten a strike unless wages are raised 7½ cents an hour.

Also from Detroit comes a legislative bill to boost salaries of state supreme court justices from $15,000 to $25,000 a year and circuit court judges from $9,000 to $20,000 a year. Additional security would be provided by extending the terms of circuit judges from six to eight years. Rural legislators have been cool to proposals of liberal pensions for aging judges; the same treatment is anticipated for the latest notion of $20,000 to $25,000 salaries. What's just for a justice?

The legislature adopted a resolution, on party line, censuring President Truman for firing General MacArthur. As one legislator put it, "There must have been a better way for the President to discipline the nation's hero of Bataan than to fire him. I always held that against Sigler (who fired Oscar Olander as State Police commissioner), and now I can't go along with Truman for doing the same thing."

While the legislative taxation cauldron boiled furiously, Governor G. Mennen Williams quietly turned to his proposed crime commission and the possibility it won't meet the approval in the state. Following exposure of a narcotics ring in Detroit, Williams had asked that a citizen body be named to probe situations in the state.

Now the majority of Detroit Bar association members have turned against the commission proposal, ostensibly because it would be an "ineffectual" citizen committee. Says Williams, off the record, the idea hasn't been dropped—law enforcement facilities must be tightened and work is being done in that direction.

The mock air raid on Saulte Ste. Marie was a success. It showed the people of Michigan just how much more equipment is needed. Medical supplies, radios and fire equipment were listed as most necessary and most limited.

Of the 507,000 Michigan men who registered for the draft since June of 1948, some 18,000 have been called up since the outbreak of the Korean hostilities.

Approximately 11,000 men are now awaiting induction with 40,000 coming up shortly for pre-induction examinations.

The number of Michigan strikes has reached the nadir of the curve of the last 10 years. Eighty-one disputes were reported as against 713 in 1944-45. Number of man-days lost last year was 7,000,000 highest of any of the last seven years.

The state library lost 30,000 books, documents and pamphlets in the state office building fire. Partial library service is now restored.

For the first time in five months, monthly "wholesale" prices for Michigan farm prices averages failed to rise during March.

On the basis of tentative valuations, public utility and public service companies will pay $1,028,454 more to Michigan schools than they did last year. Average tax rate this year was $32 per thousand, compared to $31.63 a year ago. At this rate companies will pay $14,735,118 in taxes this year.

Pressure again is on the legislature to put deer hunting regulations into the hands of the conservation department to alter at its discretion. Previous attempts have failed with legislators loathe to give up that authority. But this year the heavy deer kill has sportsmen's clubs up in arms. A given number of deer starve yearly for lack of forage," one spokesman says. "That meat could just as well be on a hunter's table."

Senator Harry Hittle (R. East Lansing) would sentence subversives to sentences of any length of time up to life in a bill he introduced in the state Senate he would put teeth into the constitutional amendment approved by the people to define subversion and make it a crime.

MacArthur's riotous homecoming was stealing headlines when Charles G. Bolte, member of the U. S. mission to the U. N., told a Michigan State College conference, "Behind the shield of power we are earnestly trying to build a world peace."

You've Got To Hand It To Sandy

Sandy Johnson's wife "Tiny" suddenly asks him at breakfast the other morning "Why don't you build me some bluebird houses?" "What for?" asks Sandy. "Why for bluebirds, of course," says Tiny. "We always had 'em at home when I was a girl. May sound silly—but I sorta miss 'em."

Well, I know how busy Sandy's been lately and the thought of taking time out to build birdhouses could have made a lot of men blow their top. But not Sandy. He says, "No, Tiny. It doesn't sound silly. I think it's a wonderful idea—we're going to have bluebirds—and I'm starting on some birdhouses tonight."

From where I sit, we could do with more understanding people like Sandy—and Tiny, too. He respects her likings, and she respects his. He likes a temperate glass of beer now and then—and although Tiny sticks to coffee, whatever Sandy likes is O.K. with her. They live and let live—and that's why they live so happily.

Guard Asks Training Leave

One hundred per cent camp attendance is the 1951 field training goal of the Michigan National Guard, it was announced today by Brigadier General George C. Moran, The Adjutant General.

With that objective in mind, General Moran today dispatched letters to Chamber of Commerce in all Michigan National Guard communities. He asked them for their assistance in arranging military leave for local Guardsmen. Michigan's "Iron Fist" Division and attached units will train August 11 to 25 at Camp Grayling. "This year, more than ever, these 15 days of field training are of utmost importance," General Moran told the Chamber of Commerce. "For the past 10 months, officers and men of the 46th Division have been training intensively at home stations, spurred by the knowledge that their call to seek military leave for their come at any time. Field training is the culmination of the past year's training program. It provides the only opportunity for Michigan Guardsmen to weld their division into a fighting organization."

Unit commanders in all Guard communities have been instructed to seek military leave for their men to achieve 100 per cent attendance. In the past, attendance has averaged more than 90 per cent of strength. Individual Guardsmen will be urged to make arrangements for military leave with their employers.

Many employers of Michigan National Guardsmen have already established favorable military leave with full pay in addition to regular vacations. Others allow their Guardsmen employees two weeks' military leave, in addition to regular vacations, and make up the difference between regular pay and Guard pay. Still others grant two weeks' military leave in addition to regular vacations, without pay.

All units of the Michigan National Guard have been instructed to initiate spring recruiting drives in preparation for 1951 field training, according to the Adjutant General's office.

Openings still exist in most units for qualified men, both veterans and non-veterans, between the ages of 17 and 35. Young men who enlist in the Michigan National Guard prior to reaching the age of 18 years and six months are deferred from induction under the Selective Service Act as long as they continue to serve satisfactorily.

HOW CANCER IS CURED

To date there are only three proven ways to cure cancer:

- (1) At the top of the list are uses of radio-active materials new improved methods of surgery and new uses of the X-Ray, deep therapy machines.
- (2) For Leukemia and Hodgkins disease, use of nitrogen mustards.
- (3) Germ killing substances chemical compounds, which involve hormones, ACTH and Cortisone.

An Annual Affair

By Richard Hill Witham

LAST YEAR WE appointed Barney Bridges chairman of our annual fair in Burncrest. Old Jake Fletcher had been chairman for 15 years, and there were those who disapproved of ousting him in favor of young Barney.

Cyrus Gill, the town's leading and richest citizen, voiced the sentiments of the majority. "Jake ran a good enough fair, but Jake's getting old and his ways are out of date. We gotta keep up with the times out here in Burncrest like everywhere else. Barney Bridges is young and has modern ideas."

This was true enough. Barney promised to step up the fair. The first thing he planned to do was modernize the horse racing event. Heretofore we'd just had races that were run for the honor of the thing, trotters, with folks making side bets. Barney's idea was to import some famous promoter and make the betting open.

"It's a heck of a lot worse to have a lot of underdog betting going on with no system to it than it will be to have open betting with everyone being given a chance to throw in his dime's worth."

Every one but Jake Fletcher agreed. "The only trouble with that is," he allowed, "this professional promoter jigger you're going to import ain't known to none of us. If he's a slicker, look out!"

"Pshaw!" declared Barney tolerantly. "The man I have in mind has been in the business for years. He wouldn't dare try nothin' funny."

"Dunno about that," said Jake. "You got to figure that every last man of us is endowed with criminal instincts. Oh, we're honest enough on the surface. That's because we're smart. But you give us a chance to pull a fast one and we'll jump at it—if we're sure we can get away with it."

I sat in the grandstand and watched the sulkies line up. They made a pretty sight. The band was playing, the sun shinning and everybody was happy and feeling festive. Dana had proven his showmanship by decorating the track and grounds and issuing silk shirts and caps to the drivers. He had also hired the band and installed a loudspeaker system.

Then the race started. Around the track they went, six of them. Burnside's best, stretching out their necks, in perfect stride. Homing Pigeon led up to the half, then Jasper Bush's horse came abreast of him, then Hector Dryson came abreast of them, then Fergus Cross came abreast of them.

It looked like a neck and neck affair, which struck me as being strange. Then suddenly I stopped yelling and just stared. Coming down the stretch the four lead horses had slowed down... and by crises, 15 yards from the finish tape, they all stopped!

It wasn't until late that night that I got all the details. Dana Easton had bribed Charlie Colewell and Jasper Bush to pull their horses so Hector Dryson could win. Hector was a long shot and would have paid plenty.

But it didn't work that way. Why? Because Jake Fletcher had figured what Dana Easton was up to and had secretly and individually bribed the other four racers to hold in their horses.

With all six drivers bribed the race simply came to a standstill and nobody finished.

"Which," Jake Fletcher pointed out, "just proves my contention that every man's a crook, if he thinks he can get away with it."
